

THE NATIONAL WALLACE MONUMENT

School Parties and Educational Groups

The National Wallace Monument – - THE CLASSROOM WITH A SPECIAL OUTLOOK ON SCOTTISH HISTORY

The legacy of William Wallace runs as a theme throughout Scottish history. English chroniclers condemned him as a notorious villain - guilty of murder and treason, and rightfully executed in 1305. Yet generations of Scots have hailed him as a hero - and as a martyr.

The National Wallace Monument overlooks the site of Wallace's greatest victory - the defeat of the English forces at The Battle of Stirling Bridge in 1297, and it is an ideal visit for educational groups, providing a unique insight into:

- The Wars of Independence (1286-1370)
- The Life of William Wallace
- The Battle of Stirling Bridge
- Scottish Heroes- from The Victorian Era to The Present Day

BOOKING A VISIT FOR A SCHOOL PARTY OR EDUCATIONAL GROUP

Advance reservations are essential for educational groups visiting The Monument - to ensure that your party can arrive at a time which will enable them to enjoy their visit to the full.

To make your reservation, contact The National Wallace Monument on (01786) 472140, or by e-mail to info@nationalwallacemonument.com.

To assist in making your reservation, please have the following information available:

- The name and address of your school (including the post code), and contact details (telephone/fax numbers, and e-mail address)
- The name (and contact details, if different) for the teacher who is organising or leading the visit
- The preferred date and time for your visit
- The number of pupils, teachers, and accompanying adults in the group
- Details of any special needs or requirements (e.g. pupils with special physical needs, etc.).